New Advertiſements.

George-Town, January 2, 1764.

THOMAS GODFREY,

Having enter'd into Co-partnerſhip with Mr. THOMAS GADSDEN, commencing the firſt inſtant;

BEGS leave to take this method of returning thanks to his friends and cuſtomers, for their favours to him, and hopes for a continuance thereof to GODFREY & GADSDEN, who now carry on the buſineſs: He will be further obliged to them, to diſcharge or ſettle their accompts previous thereto, as ſoon as poſſible. ‡

Charles-Town, January 2d, 1764.

THE Co-partnerſhip of DOWNES and NICHOLSON being expired near three years, and a few accompts ſtill remaining unpaid, JOSEPH NICHOLSON's circumſtances and ſituation, cannot ſuffer them to remain ſo any longer; therefore he deſires all concerned to take notice, that in a very few weeks longer, every book accompt, notes and bonds, will be put in the hands of an Attorney. ‡

AS there are ſeveral Accompts open in the Books of LISTON & BENFIELD, as well as bonds and notes which have been a long time due. This is to give notice, that they will (if not diſcharged before the firſt of February next) be put into an attorney's hands. ‡

Charles-Town, January 7th, 1764.

THE Co-partnerſhip of NICHOLSON & BAMPFIELD being expired the 1ſt current, and JOSEPH NICHOLSON being determin'd to leave the province by the firſt of April, he acquaints all thoſe indebted to that company (except a few who lately, by agreement, bought goods payable next ſpring) that they muſt pay their debts of what kind ſoever, to him or Mr. BAMPFIELD, in two months from this date:

And, as adverſements of this ſort, often repeated, ſeldom have any good effect, he gives notice, that this ſhall remain only ſix weeks in the papers, that their accompts ſhall be all ready in three weeks, and that they may have no excuſe, good caſh, and any kind of indico will be taken in payment: all who have accompts againſt them, are deſired to ſend them in. ‡

As our former Advertiſement has had no effect, than bringing thoſe to whom we are indebted to call for payments:

We do therefore, for the laſt time, give this public notice, to all who are indebted to us, by bond, note, or accompt, that unleſs they diſcharge the ſame before the firſt of March next, they will be put into the hands of an attorney. ‡ LISTON, BENFIELD, & JONES.

THE Co-partnerſhip of NICHOLSON & BAMPFIELD being expired, they take this opportunity of returning thanks to all their friends, for their favours, and hope for a continuance of them to WILLIAM BAMPFIELD, who has purchaſed the remaining ſtock of GOODS belonging to the company, the greateſt part whereof are lately imported; which he will continue to ſell at a low advance, in order to clear his ſtore, for a well aſſorted cargo he expects next fall. ‡

CHARLES-TOWN, JANUARY 7, 1764.

Wedneſday laſt the General Aſſembly of this province met here, in purſuance of the Governor's proclamation of the 31ſt ult. (publiſhed in the Gazette Extraordinary of ſame day) when His Excellency was pleaſed to deliver the following SPEECH, to the council and commons, viz.

Honourable gentlemen,
Mr. ſpeaker, and gentlemen of the commons houſe of aſſembly,

WITHOUT obſerving to-day upon the buſineſs of various ſorts which well deſerves your ſerious atrention, the melancholy incident which I ſhall immediately make you acquainted with will ſufficiently juſtify my calling you ſo ſuddenly together. On the 24th of laſt month a party of Creek Indians, murdered fourteen perſons in the Long Canes ſettlement; an outrage of this ſort, ſo ſoon after the king's forgivenneſs of all former offences was ſolemnly declared to them, and every means uſed to remove their jealouſies, and to conciliate their goodwill, is too plain a proof, I am afraid, that they are not to be reclaimed by good offices, that they diſdain your proferred friendſhip, and are really dangerous and inveterate enemies; as ſuch they muſt be treated, and as ſuch guarded againſt. The conſternation and real diſtreſs which the poor unhappy back ſettlers are thrown into, reduced to abandon their all or loſe their lives, will, I am perſuaded, excite your compaſſion, and procure them relief. It would be an inſult to your humanity to doubt it, and additional miſery, if poſſible, to them to be diſappointed. I will lay copies of the information brought me before you, and then rely on your taking ſuch meaſures, as a love of your country, and a tenderneſs for your fellow creatures muſt dictate. Such aſſiſtance as I could furniſh, independent of you, is already ordered. When you, Gentlemen of the commons houſe of aſſembly, are deliberating upon this unhappy affair, it will be by no means foreign from the ſubject, to conſider how the poſts on the frontiers are circumſtanced, Auguſta, which is garriſoned by troops from this province, is in ruins; Fort Moore is repaired indeed, but has not a gun mounted, or a gun carriage belonging to it, nor am I able to convey to either a barrel of powder, unleſs I apply the poor remains of contingent money to this ſervice. There is not a month's proviſion in the one nor the other, nor is Fort Prince George much better ſupplied, and what is ſtill worſe, the crown no longer allows proviſions to the troops.

Thus, Gentlemen, I have related plainly, how matters are, and have carefully avoided heightening the diſtreſs of the frontiers by laboured deſcriptions.

Before I conclude, I muſt acquaint you that, in conſequence of repreſentations made to the king, his majeſty has thought proper to order me to appoint commiſſioners to run a temporary line of juriſdiction, in concert with North-Carolina commiſſioners. Governor Dobbs and I have agreed, that they ſhall begin the firſt of March, and I now apply to you, Gentlemen of the commons houſe of aſſembly, to enable me to carry the king's commands into execution.

January 4th, 1764. THOMAS BOONE.

The ſame day his excellency was pleaſed to ſend to the aſſembly the information he had received of the murders perpetrated by the Indians at Long-Canes; which is nearly the ſame as inſerted in our laſt, but was corroborated by the affidavits of McGeary, Cuddy, &c.

To his excellency THOMAS BOONE, Eſq; captain-general, governor, and commander in chief, in and over his majeſty's province of South-Carolina, and vice-admiral of the ſame.

The humble ADDRESS of his majeſty's COUNCIL.

May it pleaſe your excellency,

WE his majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal ſubjects, the council of this province, met in general aſſembly, return our thanks to your excellency, for your ſpeech delivered to both houſes yeſterday.

We are very ſenſibly affected with, and ſincerely lament, the unhappy ſituation into which our back ſettlements are brought, by the murders and outrages committed by the Creek Indians, mentioned in your ſpeech. This ungrateful return, for the royal grace and bounty which they have ſo lately experienced, raiſes in us the greateſt indignation againſt them; and we beg leave to aſſure your excellency, that we ſhall give our moſt ready concurrence, in every meaſure, that ſhall tend to relieve or protect our fellow ſubjects, or to repreſs or chaſtiſe the inſolent incurſions of thoſe barbarians: At the ſame time, we return our hearty thanks to your excellency, for your care, in taking every ſtep in your power for the immediate protection of our weſtern frontiers.

In the upper houſe of aſſembly, By order of the houſe,
January 5th, 1764. WILLIAM BULL, Speaker.

To which his excellency returned the following ANSWER.

Honourable gentlemen,

IT gives me great pleaſure to find, that, upon an occaſion when the ſafety of the province, and the protection of poor helpleſs ſettlers, require that we ſhould be all united, I may depend on your concurrence and aſſiſtance, in providing for the one and relieving the other; and I ſincerely and heartily hope, that intentions ſo commendable, may be as general as they, at this time, are peculiarly neceſſary.

Jan. 5th, 1764. THOMAS BOONE.

Within theſe two days, the accounts in our laſt, of the murders at the Long-Canes, are confirmed from different quarters: But there are various reports and opinions as to the murderers. Some imagine, that they are diſſatisfied Creeks, who have taken this ſtep effectually to embroil us with their nation; others, that they are only a part of the gang of that reſtleſs and inveterate enemy to the Engliſh, the Mortar of Oakchoy; others, ſuſpect them to be Northern Indians; and ſome think, that they may be Cherokees, ſet on by Serowh (or Saliqué) the Young-War-tor of Ellatowih, who, it is ſaid, did not appear well ſatisfied with the ſhare of preſents delivered to him after the late congreſs at Auguſta.

The new ſhip Lloyd, of and from Piſcataqua, for this port, on wedneſday laſt, about ſix o'clock in the evening, the weather being thick and hazy, ſtruck upon a part of the ſhoal near our bar called No-Man's-Land, where ſhe immediately bulged and filled. Nothing is likely to be ſaved beſides the ſails and rigging.

Yeſterday morning died, ſuddenly, at George-Town, Winyah, Mr. Andrew Johnſton; brother to Archibald Johnſton, Eſq; who alſo died ſuddenly laſt the 13th ult.

This day arrived here, his majeſty's ſhip the Eſcorte, Capt. Foley, in nine weeks from England; and his majeſty's ſhip the Tryal, Capt. Wallace, from a cruize.
